SALE OF TODDY SHOPS FOR 1903-04.

Notification No. 429—Ex. F. 6-1902, dated Bangalore, 18th March 1903.

1. It is hereby notified by the Government of Mysore that the exclusive privilege of selling toddy in each shop or group of shops specified in the appended *Schedule for one year, beginning with 1st July 1903 and ending with 30th June 1904, will be put up to public auction at upset prices by the respective Deputy Commissioners or by Revenue Sub-Division Officers or Divisional Officers of the Excise Department or Assistant Commissioners specially authorized by the Deputy Commissioners for the purpose, on the dates mentioned in the said Schedule, and at the respective Taluk Kasbas, and will be knocked down to the bidder offering the highest amount of rent for the aforesaid privilege. If the sales are not completed on abovenamed days, they will be continued on the next following days. The officer conducting the sale shall be at liberty to revise, when necessary, the grouping of shops as specified in the Schedule hereto appended, and to accept or reject any bid at discretion, or to sell the said privilege in any particular case, by means of tenders or by private negotiation, or to sell the privilege in any Coffee Estate to the planter for a fixed amount not less than Rs. 12 per shop. The shops in alienated villages shall be separately sold, and the amounts connected therewith shall be shown in the accounts under a distinct head. The sale in every case shall be subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth, and shall, unless revised by the Government, take effect upon formal confirmation by the Deputy Commissioner. Should there be no bid above the upset price, the officer conducting the sale may lower the upset price at discretion. The condition and character of intending bidders may be enquired into and the officer conducting the sale may, at the time of sale, refuse to receive the necessary deposit, which gives the right to bid, from persons regarding whom the result of such enquiries is not satisfactory. No former licensee who has been guilty of infringement of the terms of his license or of the Excise Laws in force, shall be entitled to bid. The officer conducting the sale shall not be bound to accept the highest bid, should he consider it to be so extravagantly high as to afford apprehension of the licensee breaking down.

2. (a) Parties intending to bid must attend either in person or by duly authorized agents; and no person shall be permitted to bid either on his own behalf or an account of any one else until he has made a deposit of Rs. 10 in the case of individual shops, or Rs. 25 in the case of the groups of shops, or such other reasonable amount as may be fixed by the officer conducting the sale. Such deposits will be returned at the close of the sale.

(b) No shops or groups of shops shall be knocked down in the name of more than one person or of more than one company or firm duly represented. The selling officer shall refuse to register as a purchaser any one in whose name the bidding has not proceeded.

3. The successful bidder must, on the exclusive privilege being knocked down to him, and before the next shop or group of shops is put up for sale, deposit a sum equal to one-twenty-fourth part of his bid for the year, that is to say, one-half of the monthly rent; and within fifteen days of the confirmation of the sale by the Deputy Commissioner being notified to him in writing, he must deposit such further sum as, with the former deposit, will make up an aggregate sum equal to three months' rent. Within ten days after the expiry of the period allowed for making the deposit of three months' rent as above, the purchaser of the exclusive privilege shall execute an agreement binding himself and so much of his movable and immovable property as may be deemed sufficient, to observe the conditions hereinafter set forth, as well as those specified in the license to be issued to him; and his surety, if any, has been accepted under
